ENCOURAGING

General Manager Kentucky Southwestern Railway, Light and Power Co., is Home.

Paducah, Ky., Feb. 3. Encouraged and inspired over the proposed interurban railroad in this section, Fred M. Smith, general manager of the Kentucky Southwestern Electric Railway Light & Power Company, has returned from Paris, France, where he spent several weeks with financiers who will finance the railway line. Mr. Smith went to France to close a number of minor but important details bearing upon the bond issue, and arranged for the bonds for the second division that will extend into Livingston county.

The bond issue for the first division that will extend from Paducah to Murray, via Mayfield was arranged last summer, when the announcement was made in the News-Democrat. The bond issue for the first division is $2,000,000.

Assurance is given from an authentic source that the interurban will be constructed and important developments may be expected in the near future. Essential functions in the embryo stage must be matured before the Kentucky Southwestern company will be ready to divulge all of its information in regard to the building of the line. This line will attract immense capital to the section it is to traverse, according to an official, who stated that the interurban would be built, regardless of the adverse comment.

Before work is started there are many details to be settled that have a relationship to the railway, but will not be a composite part of the system. It is just as important that these affairs be given the consideration they actually merit as it is to build the line, and when all the plans are perfected the public will be given all the facts that appertain to the line, and information, no doubt, about other industrial developments.

Mr. Smith was anxious to get back in America and especially Paducah. He said that Paris had its interesting places and was a great city, but he preferred America. The French capitalists, he said, were attracted by the great possibilities of the interurban and with the physical resources of the territory the survey penetrates felt assured that the investment would prove successful in every respect and be an important factor in the development of one of the most prosperous communities in the United States.

Meets Tragic Death.

Cadiz, Ky., Feb. 3. Lonnie Cain, the 8-year-old son of Pontus Cain, met a tragic death in Little River Wednesday afternoon. The exact circumstances are not known. The lad's home was a mile east of Cadiz, but he attended school here. Wednesday he was in his accustomed place, and with the other children was dismissed a little after 3 o'clock.

Lonnie at once started home, and his course taking him over an old wooden bridge, which is covered both overhead and on the sides. Some planks have been torn from the sides, however, and through one of these Lonnie was seen gazing at the water. Some of the children say they saw him throwing bits of paper into the water. Whether he fell into the river at that time is not known, but when he did not return home at his accustomed time, an alarm was given and five hours after he was last seen, his body was found almost floating at a point where the water is more than thirty feet deep. One hand and a part of the arm was above the water, while the rest of the body was barely covered. It is believed that a school satchel which was fastened about the boy's neck served to keep the body afloat.

WOULD REGULATE

Measure of Hart County Man Seeks to Eradicate Evils of the Sale of Tobacco.

Frankfort, Ky., Jan. 31. Representative Henry Avery, of Hart county, has introduced a bill into the House which seeks to regulate the sale of leaf tobacco in Kentucky. It is designed to eradicate certain evils which tobacco men recognize have sprung up in the tobacco business.

For the grower it will reduce the warehouseman's commission from 1 per cent to 1/2 per cent, and eliminate the practice of giving ten-pound samples free with each hoghead. For the warehouseman it prohibits the packing of tobacco in the hoghead in such a manner that by inspection of only a portion of the package he will be deceived as to the value or quality of the contents.

The bill provides that every package of tobacco sent to the warehouses shall be carefully weighed, and the grower is to receive his price for the net weight, instead of deducting a ten pound sample, as has been the custom. The sellers of tobacco are permitted to receive as commission $1.50 a hoghead and a commission of one-half per cent of the gross amount of the sale, and if any of the tobacco is rejected the percentage commission is to be deducted. The custom now is a 1 per cent commission, according to Avery. This gives the grower one-half per cent more than he formerly received.

Representative Avery said there was a natural and unnatural loss in tobacco sent to warehouses. He aims to eliminate the latter by putting in his bill a section providing that no warehouseman be directly or indirectly interested in any tobacco offered for sale in his warehouse other than that raised by persons or tenants on his premises or the actual sweepings of the floor not including tobacco in hand. Avery stated that the grower suffered from the loss of tobacco in hand either by careless or shady handling.

A penalty is provided for any one who prizes any leaf tobacco. This is to pack it so as to make its quality appear better than it really is. Such as spreading the leaf apples over the top of a bushel basket.

All claims for reclamations must be made within ninety days except for tobacco sold to foreign countries, when the limit extends to six months. If any tobacco is rejected the rejecting party shall be required to pay only for the fees of the packages rejected by him. It provides that the buyer shall not be permitted to reject unless the seller does first, and then only an equal number of packages.

If the warehouseman violates any of the provisions of the act he is liable to the aggrieved party for from $10 to $50 on each hoghead. Fines are provided in addition to this damage feature.

JUDGE SPEER MADE
LAWYERS JESTERSIN REGAL STYLE HE MADE THEM
BUTTS OF WITTICISMS.

Savannah, Ga.—Sweeping charges that Federal Judge Speer, of the Southern district of Georgia, repeatedly had conducted his court in a high-handed, arrogant, and intolerant manner, and is unfit to preside as a judge, were made by witnesses before the special congressional committee which is conducting an investigation here into charges of official misconduct by the accused jurist.

Thomas S. Felder, attorney general of Georgia, was vigorous in his denunciation of Judge Speer.

"Judge Speer, in my opinion," he said, "is unequivocally unsatisfactory as a judge, and the wonder is the people have suffered so long."

Mr. Felder added that Judge Speer had the surroundings of his court so arranged as to show him off to best advantage. The lawyers practicing were the king's jesters. They were the butts for Judge Speer's witticisms.

Judge Speer knew how to take advantage of the situation, and usually did so. The people of Judge Speer's district—not the evidences alone—stood in terror of his court."

Mr. Felder's testimony dealt with the W. A. Huff bankruptcy case, in which the witness represented Colonel Huff. He charged that Judge Speer had conducted this case in a grossly improper manner and had allowed excessive fees to officials whom he appointed to administer the estate.

In the peonage case of Chaney, of Florida, charged with the murder of a woman, Judge Speer was equally guilty. Judge Speer apparently sought to coerce his clients into pleading guilty. We had many character witnesses on hand, but Judge Speer would allow only a few of them to testify.

In overruling my motion to direct a verdict for the defendants, Judge Speer dissipated on the expense of liberty the American flag, etc., and at the end of his remarks he said in the presence of the jury that if there was a case of peonage, this is one."

"Judge Speer took me to task before the jury for using the word 'nigger,' and even threatened to take me from the list of attorneys authorized to practice in his court. All of this, I believe, was done to influence the jury against my clients," the witness added.

SENATOR S. M. CULLOM DEAD

Wanted to Give United States Members of Congress

Senator Cullom was born in 1832 in New York. He was a member of the Senate from 1881 to 1891.

NO FREE SERVICE
BY THE RAILROADS

INTERSTATE COMMERCE COMMISSION FERRETS OUT REBATES.

Washington, Great manufacturing corporations having, so-called industrial railroads connecting their plants with trunk lines, may no longer receive rebates or per diem charges and various other allowances, according to a decision of the Interstate Commerce Commission.

It was held that such practices are unlawful rebates which, as come to the benefit of the industrial themselves. Testimony in the case developed that the so-called trusts having such railroads enjoy income from such charges running into millions of dollars each year.

The very carriers that are exempting their expense accounts and dissipating their revenues in this manner to the extent of many millions of dollars a year, and for the benefit of comparatively few shippers, are now complaining that their present earnings are insufficient and, on that ground, have asked our permission to make a substantial increase in their general rate schedules, says the decision.

"In that sense the proposed advance in rates has a certain very definite relation to this proceeding," the commission's statement regarding railroad rates continues.

"Before they fairly may ask the general public to share further in carrying their burdens, it is manifest that the railroads themselves must conserve properly their sources of revenue by making every service performed contribute reasonably to their earnings."

The decision further points out that allowances paid to and free services performed for large industrial plants, which are a large part of the revenue of the carriers, would constitute a violation of the law if they were permitted to handle the traffic of state with other lines in its carriage.

"If the allowance and free service made to such industrial plants are to be lawful, it is the duty of the railroads to make the same available to all shippers, and must in the future be extended to all industries similarly situated. We are, therefore, at the parties of the ways with respect to this very heavy tax on transportation."

WILSON INDORSED
BY COMMITTEEIT ORDERS FAVORABLE REPORTS ON ARBITRATION TREATIES.

EARLY ACTION IS PROMISED

Treaties Are Identical—All Provide for Limited Arbitration of Questions Which Cannot Be Adjusted by Diplomacy.

Washington, Responding promptly to President Wilson's appeal made at the White House conference, the senate committee on foreign relations ordered favorable reports on a large number of arbitration treaties between the United States and the leading countries of the world. These were laid before the senate later in executive session and will come up for ratification in the near future.

This action will rehabilitate that extensive structure of arbitration which gradually had been falling to pieces by the expiration of the time limit of one treaty after another until all either had expired or were about to expire. While the treaties are yet to be ratified, favorable action of the committee and the strong initiative given by the president's appeal, promise to lead to early and favorable action.

The far-reaching character of this group of treaties is shown by the long list of first-signer powers with which the United States is now negotiating. These include Great Britain, France, Italy, Spain, Sweden, Denmark, Norway, Finland, Belgium, Netherlands, Greece, Portugal, Austria-Hungary, Persia, Salvador, Cuba, Haiti, Santo Domingo, and Uruguay.

Another treaty of the same kind with Mexico expired last June and was not renewed.

The senate committee considered those of the treaties gone to expire and agreed, inasmuch as they are identical with the eight recommended by the North American conference.

Aside from the importance of these treaties in the case of arbitration, some have a larger significance in affecting political and international relations between the United States and other countries. It is understood to have been the purpose of President Wilson and Secretary Bryan in urging prompt ratification to establish a peaceful bulwark to further lessen the possibility of complications on any of the existing foreign problems.

All the treaties acted on are actually identical and provide for a limited arbitration of questions which can not be adjusted by diplomacy.

MILLION ADDED BY HOUSE

Lower River Appropriation Is Now $7,000,000.

Washington, Feb. 12.—The house today voted to add $1,000,000 to the appropriation for the lower Mississippi river, making the total $7,000,000. This is an increase of $1,000,000 over the appropriation for the current year. It is estimated that this one million additional was included as a small measure of compensation for opposition to the principles of the Roosevelt-Hughes bill. But the committee did not place the project under the continuing contract system, which if it had been done, would have assured the continuance of work under a definite plan.

POLICEMAN'S PISTOL
HOLDS UP A SUICIDEAfter Plunge Into Ice Chicago River
Bradford Heitates—Revolver Does the Rest.

Chicago.—What old police about being "between the devil and the deep sea" came to the mind of John Bradford, in all of his 45 winters he had never found the Chicago river so cold as Chicago police force on Monday.

He was standing on the Washington street bridge when he decided that the Chicago river would be a good place to drown himself. He leaped over the railing and hit the water with a splash that brought policemen from the shore. Bradford came up shivering and kicking. "ATTEMPT TO DROWN MYSELF," he shouted.

"Very well, then," he said nonchalantly. "If you're going to be my wife, take off my shoes and stockings."

"Come Out of That, You Spalpeen," drawn he didn't know, but the water was so cold he had to do something to keep warm.

"Come out of that, you spalpeen," shouted the police. "Come out of that, or by all that's good and holy, I'll put a bullet in you!"

The policeman had drawn his revolver and leveled it at the swimmer. Bradford knew that he wouldn't dodge the bullet without ducking his head in the icy water, and he struck out for a pier, to which he clung until the policeman hauled him a rope and pulled him out.

"It was a cold, unfeeling world, and I wanted to end it all, but that water is the coldest proposition I ever went against," said Bradford, shivering as he was taken to the hospital.

He refused to say why he attempted to commit suicide.

"You fill the pails with sand, and let me turn them out," suggested six-year-old Jack to little Doris.

"You playmate obediently complied. Now we'll build a castle and you shall be the water to go round it," explained Jack.

"The little maid struggled up and down the beach, carrying back pails of water.

"Can't you fetch the water now, Jack?" she asked, "and let me pour it round?"

"This can't do that properly," answered the boy. "Let's make a castle, and you can be the water."

"Very well, then," he said nonchalantly. "If you're going to be my wife, take off my shoes and stockings."

"Come Out of That, You Spalpeen," drawn he didn't know, but the water was so cold he had to do something to keep warm.

"Come out of that, you spalpeen," shouted the police. "Come out of that, or by all that's good and holy, I'll put a bullet in you!"

The policeman had drawn his revolver and leveled it at the swimmer. Bradford knew that he wouldn't dodge the bullet without ducking his head in the icy water, and he struck out for a pier, to which he clung until the policeman hauled him a rope and pulled him out.

"It was a cold, unfeeling world, and I wanted to end it all, but that water is the coldest proposition I ever went against," said Bradford, shivering as he was taken to the hospital.

He refused to say why he attempted to commit suicide.

Extends Legs Into Water, Raises Up of Rope.

Chicago.—When it comes to rescuing men from drowning, Stanley Martin, who lives at 288 Grand boulevard, requires neither ropes, planks, life-buoy, nor even arms.

His short stumps that end a few inches from his shoulders, two legs and a head, were all that was needed.

Martin spent the afternoon strolling along the lake front. At thirty-five street he paused to look out from shore and watch Henry Carlson of the Vincent Avenue kindergarten school in a canoe.

As he watched the canoeist, Martin saw a small child in the water, and he saw a small child in the water, and he saw a small child in the water.

He saw a small child in the water, and he saw a small child in the water, and he saw a small child in the water.

SAGE TEA AND SULPHUR
DARKENS YOUR GRAY HAIRLook Years Younger! Try Grandma's
Recipe of Sage and Sulphur and Nobody Will Know.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray. Also, it keeps the scalp cool and moist, falling hair, itching scalp, and dandruff.

Years ago the only way to get rid of these troubles was to use a harsh, irritating preparation, which would make the hair fall out, and the scalp would be sore.

Now, however, you can get rid of these troubles by using Sage Tea and Sulphur, which is a gentle, soothing preparation, which will make the hair grow again, and the scalp will be healthy.

Many people have written to me, saying that they have used Sage Tea and Sulphur, and that it has made their hair grow again, and that their scalp is healthy.

So, if you have faded, streaked or gray hair, or if you have a itching scalp, or if you have dandruff, use Sage Tea and Sulphur, and you will be surprised at the results.

Write to me for a free copy of the recipe, and I will send it to you. My name is Mrs. J. C. Smith, and I live at 123 Main Street, New York City.

KENTUCKY MAN TELLS HOW MAYR STOMACH REMEDY RESTORED WIFE

Mrs. W. H. Clarke is Relieved After Years of Digestive Disorders.

Mrs. W. H. Clarke, of Central City, Ky., for many years suffered from disorders of the stomach. She tried many treatments with but little encouragement. Mr. Clarke induced her to try Mayr's Wonderful Stomach Remedy. She got results right away. Then he wrote:

"The medicine has done my wife a world of good, and I feel that it will cure her. I intend to keep on until she is completely cured, as you have been doing her more good than anyone has ever done her, and she has been suffering with her stomach for years. I am glad I was told of your remedy."

Letters like that are written by users of Mayr's Wonderful Stomach Remedy in all parts of the country. It proves its merit with the first dose—no long treatment.

Mayr's Wonderful Stomach Remedy clears the digestive tract of mucus secretions and removes poisonous matter. It brings swift relief to sufferers from ailments of the stomach, liver and bowels. Many declare it has saved them from dangerous operations and many are sure it has saved their lives.

Because of the remarkable success of this remedy there are many imitators, so be cautious. Be sure its MAYR'S. Go to Dale & Stubblefield's drugstore and ask about the wonderful results it has been accomplishing—or send to Geo. H. Mayr, Mfg. Chemist, 154-156 Whiting Street, Chicago, Ill., for free book on stomach ailments and many grateful letters from people who have been restored. Any druggist can tell you its wonderful effects.

Fourth Number Lyceum Course.

In Roland A. Nichols the people of Murray are offered a rare opportunity. He is one of the greatest platform lecturers of modern times and is abundantly endowed by nature, training and experience for this work. His humor is natural and irresistible, his impersonations true to life, his narrative and dramatic powers thrilling and his voice deep. He is a strong, forceful speaker with a magnetic personality, and is not only a man with a cultured mind but with a big heart, winning his hearers at the outset and retaining their attention to the end. He gives some original poems which are often mistaken for Riley's. Mr. Nichols is a man with a message. Don't fail to hear him February 9.

I will pay you to see our Wife and get our prices before you buy. We handle nothing but the American—Sexton, Brothers. 1:21.

It's absolute FOLLY for a man who intends to marry or who has a WIFE and CHILDREN directly dependent upon HIM not to save a part of his income from his earnings or his business.

Mrs. Jane Veal, widow of the late Gus Veal, died at her home in this place Wednesday morning at about 5 o'clock after a long suffering of consumption. She was about 60 years of age and was well known in the country and city and possessed many friends to mourn her death. She is survived by four children, Gus, Eddie and Burie Veal, and Mrs. John Clayton. The remains were carried to Paducah Thursday at noon and were laid to rest in the cemetery of that city by the side of her husband.

An Open Letter to Tobacco Growers of Planters Protective Association

Dear Friend:

It is being rumored all over the country that I have stolen big sums of money from the farmers whose tobacco I have handled. It has even been said that I have been arrested and am under bond for the tobacco I have stolen from the farmers.

One or two parties knowing that I will prize the greater part of the association tobacco in Calloway county put this out in order to damage me.

I want to say to you that this report is all uncalled for and is absolutely untrue, and was all done for a purpose.

As you know, none of us are perfect, and mistakes will occur no matter how careful we are or how hard we try to prevent them; and so it is with the printer. In spite of him, sometimes a tag gets lost off of a bunch or truck of tobacco. Now this bunch of tobacco must be carried in account by itself until we find out to whom it belongs. This account is "Lost Tag" or "Gain and Loss Account," which never amounts to a great deal.

Of course there is someone's tobacco that will come up short on account of this lost tag, so you see that we have to carry this account to make up the shortage out of at the end of the season. That is the reason that I give you my receipt when you deliver your tobacco, so that if you should happen to have a loss of this kind in your tobacco I can straighten it up. I have always done this, and if at any time in the future should any shortage occur I stand ready and more than willing to correct the error.

If there is anything that you do not perfectly understand about this matter I would be glad to have you give me a call and I will explain it to your satisfaction.

I wish to say to you that I will continue to prize association tobacco although it seems every endeavor has been made to injure me. I further wish to say that I will do my utmost to give you entire satisfaction and obtain the highest market price for your tobacco.

Thanking you for your past favors and hoping a continuation of same, I remain, YOUR FRIEND,

EUGENE TARRY.

SIDE-STEP CALOMEL

It's Poison to the Human System and Works Great Harm.

You perhaps know cases in your own experience when people have been salivated—injured for life by the use of calomel. Such cases are matters of daily occurrence. Modern medical science has discovered a vegetable remedy which eliminates liver poisons more effectively than dangerous calomel and at once saves you all the disagreeable effects. It is gentle in effect, no griping, no nausea, no chance of salivation. It cleanses the system thoroughly.

It is known as GRIGSBY'S LIV-VER-LAX, and is sold in 50c and $1.00 bottles by E. D. MILLER under an absolute guarantee that your money will be refunded if you wish it after trying this wonder remedy.

For your protection and the protection of the drugist, the likeness of L. K. Grigsby appears on every bottle.

Fred Walker, of this city, and Miss Ola Crooks, of Pensacola, Fla., were united in marriage the past week at the home of the bride and arrived here the first of the week where they will make their home at present with his father, Mr. Houston Walker. Mr. Walker recently completed a several years enlistment in the United States army and is a well-known young man and has many friends. His bride is one of the popular young ladies of her home town and belongs to one of the best families of that city.

Oury Harris, a former resident of this county, now of Dickson, Tenn., was here the first of the week in the interest of the Jason Futrel Real Estate Agency, also of Dickson. Mr. Futrel a former resident of Murray also, Mr. J. R. Thomas and Mr. Harris are also interested in the business.

HARRIS—My Plunket male will make the season at my home at Cherry at $1.00 cash, if charged $1.00. John T. Harris, Apr. 2:11

This Bill Should Stop Pistol Toting.

Frankfort, Ky., Without a dissenting vote the Senate today passed the Arnett bill, as amended by the committee, fixing drastic punishment for the carrying of concealed weapons. Under the provisions of the measure a first conviction carries with it disfranchisement for two years, besides a fine of from $10 to $100 and a jail sentence of from ten to forty days. The penalty upon second conviction is confinement in the penitentiary of from one to five years. The amendment by the committee provides a fine of from $10 to $50 for the circuit clerk or sheriff who fails or refuses to issue a capias or execute the judgment.

An amendment offered by Senator T. F. Bagby of Lewis, fixing the fine at $50 and the jail sentence of six months was voted down.

Senator Robert Antle, of Russell, offered an amendment providing at least one year must elapse between the first and second conviction to make the penitentiary sentence effective. This was withdrawn by the author.

Considerable discussion preceded the vote. Several of the senators suggested that it might be proper, as a matter of protection for good citizens, to devise some scheme whereby persons under certain conditions might be licensed or privileged to carry concealed weapons. No amendment of this kind was offered.

Mrs. Elmus Outland died last Saturday night at her home near Cole's Camp ground after a lingering illness of consumption. She was about 22 years of age and a very popular young matron. The funeral took place Monday after which the remains were laid to rest in the Martin's Chapel graveyard.

$100 Reward, $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one disabled disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical profession, whether being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. F. J. CHENEY & CO.

A WORD OF APPRECIATION

WE
ONLY

WE want to especially thank our many friends and patrons for making our recent CASH and Semi-Annual Clearing Sale the banner sale of our mercantile career in this place. It was indeed a sale of which we are justly proud, and a sale in which we endeavored to fix in the minds of the buying public the fact that CASH will buy more, dollar for dollar, than credit will buy. While our big sale closed the night of Jan. 31st we desire to say that it is not our purpose to discontinue our CASH bargain prices. In converting our business from a credit to a STRICTLY CASH basis we appreciate the fact that it has been a little embarrassing to us, but upon the other hand we are just as confident that we can better serve the people of this county by selling for CASH, give them more goods for less money, than can be done by any concern which sells on the credit basis.

There is but one way for us to convince the people that this statement is a correct one and that is for you to come to our store and buy your goods for CASH; come in and see the new goods and compare the price with former prices or compare them with any firm that does a credit business. We have already received quite a large number of new things in Crepes, Embroideries, Laces, Wash Goods, in fact many items for the early spring, and we have fixed the CASH price at a figure that they will sell.

Mr. L. E. Graham will leave about the 15th of this month for the Eastern markets to buy a full line of the new creations in Millinery and the smart styles in all lines handled by this store and we invite the buying public to inspect the new summer goods to be sold at CASH prices before placing their orders this year.

We again beg to thank the public for the success of our recent sale and invite every person to inspect our stock and get our prices before making your spring and summer purchases. We can save you money if you desire to pay CASH for the goods. Come and let us show you. Yours to serve.

A Doctor's First Question Is

"How are Your Bowels?" A Simple Remedy that Guarantees Good Bowel Action.

Trace the origin of the commonest ill of life and almost invariably you will find that constipation was the cause. It is not to be expected that a mass of fermented food can remain in the system beyond its time without vitiating the blood and affecting the nerves and muscles. It congests the entire body.

The results are colds, fevers, piles, headaches, and nervousness, with its accompanying indigestion and sleeplessness. There is only one thing to do, and that is to remove the trouble; and when nature seems unable to do it, outside aid is necessary. You will find the best of all outside aids a remedy that many thousands are now using for this very purpose, called Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. Many hundreds of letters are received by Dr. Caldwell telling of the good results obtained, and among the enthusiastic letters is one from Lieut. G. W. Vaughan, of 121 W. North St., Decatur, Ill. He is 72 and has had a bad liver and stomach since he came out of the army. He says he tried about everything, but never succeeded in getting permanent relief until he took Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. He is now without a bottle in the house, and he is never without good health.

It has untold advantages over pills, salts and the various coarse cathartics.

LIEUT. G. W. VAUGHAN and purgatives, for while these do but temporary good, Syrup Pepsin cures permanently. The effect of its action is to train the stomach and bowel muscles to do their work naturally, and in a short time all forms of constipation can be dispensed with. It can be bought without inconvenience at any druggist, or by mail for fifty cents and one dollar a bottle, the latter being regularly bought by those who already know its value. Results are always guaranteed or money will be refunded.

Families wishing to try a free sample bottle can obtain it postpaid by addressing Dr. W. H. Caldwell, 203 Washington St., Monticello, Ill. A postal card with your name and address on it will do.

Corporal Punishment of Children Favored

By A. WAGEMANN, Chicago.

Even the most enlightened advocates of corporal punishment in schools do not assert this form of retribution is ideal. Well-balanced minds among those of our best educators have not made any such absurd assertion. Our civilization reserves as its ultimate governmental power that of rude force even if we temper some of the official brutalities with law and mercy and such forms of justice as are considered beneficial under present conditions of society, which are not ideal at all.

Thus we decline, presently, to withhold the lessons of stern responsibility for wrong deeds that are done by the young, but we insist that stern retribution by brute force be limited to the same children when they are grown up. The boy knows that "teacher dare not touch him." Later on he finds out that police officers do dare "touch" him and even the sheriff.

Another fashionable conviction is that an immature young person, even before the stage of adolescence, has the same mind attitude as one fully matured and world experienced. This is contrary to fact. We pass through these stages. In the first all impressions come from the outside. The impressions on our first blank, then immature, mind grow in volume. The schools are an important factor in directing and fixing these impressions.

Then comes the period of maturity, in which those digested impressions are constantly enlarged, but also made use of. The mature mind applies by personal volition what it has absorbed. This is the age of activity. And then comes the age where the physical activities decline, but the mind, matured to its capacity, gives out again in counsel the conclusions of experience gained. Hence we say, "Young man for action, but old man for counsel."

A writer asserts that nothing so brutalizes a child as corporal punishment. Is that true? How about poverty, child labor, saloon influence, the low suggestions ever active everywhere?

If it were true that an occasional well-deserved lambasting knocks the best stuff, ambition, will power and self-respect, out of the present generation of children, why did it not do so in all past generations of Americans?

Demands Preachers Use More Dynamite

By REV. A. F. SAUNDERS, Pastor of First Methodist Episcopal Church, Chicago.

There never was a time when the church needed power from on high more than today. Political meetings, labor meetings, land shows, stock shows, football games, saloons and theaters are crowded, while our churches are only half-filled.

One denomination reported that one-third of their churches had no accessions last year. The reformed churches of America report that they lost as many members in two years as they gained in three. The lack of spiritual power in clergy and laity is the answer to the question.

Why is it that we have not the spiritual power today with men like Wesley, Luther, Whitfield, John Knox, Finney and Moody had in their day?

Why is it that Evan Roberts, the Welsh revivalist, could deluge Wales with religion and Gypsy Smith create a greater spiritual atmosphere than any other preachers? These men are baptised with the power of God.

We throw bombs of truth into our congregations and they go off like a Fourth of July squib. No one is hurt or slain.

The Haymarket bomb that sent many to death a few years ago in this city was filled with dynamite. We fill our sermon bombs with sawdust, and then we expect results. Sawdust preaching is not calculated to convict men of sin. There seems to be no spiritual "dynamite" in our preaching in these days.

Essays of a two-hour type of theology, preached in a half-hearted, apologetic style, fails to get to the ears of men and women struggling with the cares and burdens of life.

Vitalism Will be Popular Because it Chants

By DR. ARTHUR LYNCH, London, Eng.

It will be remembered that the last fashion was Bergson with his Creative Evolution. But Creative Evolution had a somewhat superficial, not to say exclusive, wit, only softened a little when called Evolutionism.

So all the earnest-minded men and women whom I used to see following Bergson's lectures with a curious expression of intensity and enthusiasm, make clamor no longer. I say some of them again as Professor Dr. Lynch's with the same air of feintitude that comes over us all when we feel we are being intellectual and meek.

I do not expect that Vitalism will be more better understood than Evolutionism, but I have long since come to the conclusion that a philosopher's reputation is made more extensively by those who do not comprehend it than by those who do.

Finger-Bowls are to be Abolished in West

By JOHN T. WALDON, St. Louis, Mo.

Illaho, has placed a ban on finger bowls in dining cars running through that state, as unsanitary and unnecessary.

Finger bowls have also been abolished from many cafes, hotels and restaurants in the west. The finger bowl is common in the west. Hotel men say that it is out of date and unnecessary.

The finger bowl is still popular in the east and the chances are that it will continue to be so, just why this thing has been considered unsanitary in the west I cannot understand.

It is claimed that on the dining cars the finger bowls are often found empty. The water in the bowls is often found to be stale and dirty.

SELECTING SITE

Representative of Treasury Department In Murray to Locate Federal Building.

Mr. D. Wakefield, of Washington, a special representative of the treasury department, arrived here Wednesday morning of this week and will spend several days selecting a site for the location of the federal or post-office building to be erected in this city. Two pieces of property are offered for the location. The Schroeder lot just north of the Baptist church, and the lot just east of Beale & Wells' store and known as the old Ellis place, now the property of I. W. Morris. A number of enthusiastic citizens are working in behalf of each location and petitions will be presented Monday.

The appropriation allowed the national congress carry with it a provision that not exceeding $5,000 be expended for a site, and the balance of the total amount of $71,000 be expended for a building. When this structure is completed, it will be one of the handsomest in the state, and together with the beautiful new court house belonging to Calloway, Murfreesboro can boast of two of the most splendid public buildings in Western Kentucky.

The old town is "hump herself" and if a few "tip wads" would turn loose and assist in the pavement of the public square Murray could indeed boast of one of the best and prettiest business sections any town located any old where. Let's all get the "progress habit and quit our eternal objections to public improvement. Let's pave the square. The New Council, it is up to you. Don't compel the folks to wade mud and manure in crossing streets. It may be a "pleasant sight" to watch the ladies waddle from corner to corner or cross to the beautiful court house but, now honestly, if it is your wife or daughter or a bunch of "rubber necks" who are making the remarks about that you hear made about other man's wife and daughter.
